30-Day Challenge to Support Local

- Day 1: Choose a staple item (e.g., bread) and commit to buying it locally this month.
- Day 2: Visit <https://www.fdl.com/events.html> to attend local events.
- Day 3: Try a new-to-you restaurant in your area.
- Day 4: Follow some of your favorite local businesses on social media.
- Day 5: Spruce up your front yard, balcony, or windowsill with some flowers.
- Day 6: Report a local issue (e.g., graffiti, potholes, sidewalk damage) to public works.
- Day 7: Write an online review for a local business you love.
- Day 8: Pick up a free local paper or newsletter and read about current issues in your community.
- Day 9: Waiting in line or at the bus stop? Initiate small talk with a stranger.
- Day 10: Take a small bag for a walk around the block and pick up litter you see along the way.
- Day 11: Go treasure hunting at a garage sale or thrift store this weekend.
- Day 12: Buy this week's groceries at a farmers' market or an independent grocer.
- Day 13: Pick up a local recreation guide.
- Day 14: Build goodwill with your neighbors—bake them some treats or offer to help them.
- Day 15: Fill up a bag with old stuff and drop it off at a charity thrift store.
- Day 16: Join a running club or group fitness class in your area.
- Day 17: Snapping selfies at a local business? Be sure to tag them!
- Day 18: Play tourist in your own city this weekend—don't forget to bring your camera.
- Day 19: Join, or start, a community garden.
- Day 20: Cheer on a local sports team, like the Doc Spiders!
- Day 21: Visit a local coffee shop and buy a coffee for the person behind you in line.
- Day 22: Write a letter to your elected official about a local issue or just to say thanks.
- Day 23: Find an upcoming community event to attend this month and check it out.
- Day 24: Strike up a conversation with a local business owner—ask how they got their start.
- Day 25: Track down a local band or live music venue and go to a show.
- Day 26: Buy local art to display in your home or business.
- Day 27: Take some treats to the local police station or fire department.
- Day 28: Find a local organization that excites you and offer to volunteer.
- Day 29: Go for a browse at the nearest independent bookstore.
- Day 30: Create a workshop and offer to lead it at your library.
